

Advertisement for the recruitment of Research Assistant

Project- Promotion of Diabetic retinopathy screening by medical officers as an Innovative Healthcare Project & an Operational Research funded by Second Health Sector Development Project, Ministry of Health

Contract Period- 4 months

Remuneration- Rs. 35,000/- per month

Qualifications-

- Undergraduate degree from a recognised university (MBBS graduates will be given priority)
- Should be computer literate with ability to use MS office and preferably statistical analytical packages
- Good inter-personal skills with a friendly work attitude and to communicate with peripheral health institutions.

Expected Duties-

- Coordinating the project with the Chief investigator and the other investigators
- Coordinating the training programme of the medical officers
- Data Collection, statistical analysis and report compilation under the supervision of the investigators.

Suitable candidates are request to email their resumes along with cover letter to Dr. Deepani Wewellwala, Consultant Ophthalmologist (email- deepanee@hotmail.com) on or before 10th October 2016.