No. 52101/C84

PERMANENT MISSION OF THAILAND
GENEVA

The Permanent Mission of Thailand to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations in Geneva presents its compliments to all Permanent Missions and International Organizations in Geneva and has the honour to draw the latter's attention to the invitation for nomination of the Prince Mahidol Award 2022.

The Prince Mahidol Award is an international award established since 1992 in honour of His Royal Highness Prince Mahidol of Songkla of Thailand for his exemplary contribution to the advancement of medical, public health, and human services. The Award is annually conferred on individuals or institutions in two categories:

1. Medicine: for outstanding performance and/or research in the field of medicine for the benefit of mankind;
2. Public Health: for outstanding contribution in the field of public health for the sake of the well-being of the peoples.

In this regard, the Permanent Mission of Thailand has further the honour to invite the international community in Geneva to consider nominating names of individuals or institutions to receive the prestigious award, and to submit the nomination, preferably by filling in the online form at <http://www.princemahidolaward.org/nomination-submission>, or by returning a copy of the completed form to the Permanent Mission of Thailand by 31 May 2022. Further details about the Award and the nomination procedure are accessible at <http://www.princemahidolaward.org/>.

The Permanent Mission of Thailand to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations in Geneva avails itself of this opportunity to renew to all Permanent Missions and International Organizations in Geneva the assurances of its highest consideration.

Permanent Mission of Thailand,
Geneva.
29 March B.E. 2565 (2022)

All Permanent Missions and International Organizations,
GENEVA.
