List of Approved and Rejected Requests for Release and Re-attachment in Annual Transfer Implementation

The name list of Medical Officers who are approved and rejected for re-attachment are attached herewith.

All the Medical Officers with approved re-attachment can stay in their current stations for a maximum period of three (03) months and their personal skeleton files and salary particulars must be sent to their transferred stations with immediate effect. Their salary must be paid and should allow them to apply for the annual transfers (where relevant) from the new station.

All the Medical Officers with rejected re-attachment must be released for the transferred station with immediate effect and should report for the duty maximum within three (03) days. Unless, they are liable for "No Pay Leave" or "Vacation of Post", as per the provisions of the E-Code.
